

Download Accelerated Science Guidelines

¹ In addition to the above, students who earn an undergraduate minor in Coatings & Polymeric Materials as part of their primary degree program (most commonly Chemistry or Mechanical Engineering), may be eligible for the combined/accelerated M.S. or Ph.D. program in Coatings & Polymeric Materials.. Students interested in a combined/accelerated program must consult with their academic adviser ...Receive Student Convention Guidelines, ISC updates, medical forms, Judges Applications, and more.As a result of the lessons learned from its Green Repair Program, the MSBA has instituted an Accelerated Repair Program ("Program") as part of its ongoing repair program.Doctor of Education: Students majoring in Biology, History or Mathematics can also earn Secondary Education Teacher Certification.. More information on this option is available on the program page for the major of your choice. - Accelerated Science Guidelines