The Charter of the French Language (French: La charte de la langue française), also known as Bill 101 (Law 101 or French: Loi 101), is a 1977 law in the province of Quebec in Canada defining French, the language of the majority of the population, as the official language of the provincial government. It is the central legislative piece in Quebec's language policy. Old English frencisc "of the Franks," from Franca (see Frank). The noun is from Old English frencisc. As the name of a language, from late 13c. Euphemistic meaning "bad language" (pardon my French) is from 1895. Used in many combination-words, often dealing with food or sex. One of those words? Mortgage. "Word nerds will notice an eerie root word in 'mortgage' — 'mort,' or 'death,'" Weller writes. "The term comes from Old French, and Latin before that, to literally ...French courses in Paris in Accord language school. ACCORD received the Quality Award for French as a Foreign Language.
