Slavery — and more specifically, human chattel slavery — was not a new phenomenon in the time of the transatlantic Slave trade, which started in the early 16th century and lasted through the mid-19th century. It had long been perceived as normal, natural, and necessary, and historian Robert Fogel says it “stood above criticism for 3,000 years.”Institutional racism (also known as systemic racism) is a form of racism expressed in the practice of social and political institutions. It is reflected in disparities regarding wealth, income, criminal justice, employment, housing, health care, political power and education, among other factors.. The term "institutional racism" was coined and first used in 1967 by Stokely Carmichael (later ...Daily Republican Newspaper: the web's most comprehensive news analysis resource, with 3,200 free media links, online columns and special reports, plus The Republican Law Journal. - Labor And Other Capital - The Rights Of Each Secured And The Wrongs Of Both Eradicated
