Universalism is a philosophical and theological concept that some ideas have universal application or applicability. A community that calls itself universalist may emphasize the universal principles of most religions, and accept others in an inclusive manner. It is centered on the belief in a universal reconciliation between humanity and the divine. For example, some forms of Abrahamic ...TOOL KIT ON INTER-RELIGIOUS DIALOGUE IN YOUTH WORK - 2008 LIVIN FAI HS T GETHER Thanks to the support of the European Youth Forum (YFJ) and its engagement in the promotion of Inter-religious Dialogue (IRD), the Tool Kit is being published and is going to be given visibility within the European Year of Intercultural Dialogue 2008. Islam: Contemporary figures for Islam are usually between 1 billion and 1.8 billion, with 1 billion being a figure frequently given in many comparative religion texts, probably because it's such a nice, round number. That figure appears to be dated, however. Relatively high birth rates in Muslim countries continue to make Islam a fast-growing religion. The Abrahamic religions, also referred to collectively as Abrahamism, are a group of Semitic-originated religious communities of faith that claim descent from the Judaism of the ancient Israelites and the worship of the God of Abraham. The Abrahamic religions are monotheistic, with the term deriving from the patriarch Abraham (a major biblical figure from The Old Testament, which is recognized ... - Many Peoples, Many Faiths: An Introduction To The Religious Life Of Mankind
